Got Your 6 Program
Hosted by the Veterans Resource Center
November 3, 2022  11 a.m. - 2 p.m.
Hargreaves Hall Reading Room 201
Got Your 6 (got your back) is an educational program designed to give faculty and staff a better understanding of military culture, veterans transition challenges and VA Educational benefits in order to create a supportive campus for our service members, veterans and their families. This seminar includes a free lunch sponsored by the Kalispel Tribe of Indians. Please register here: https://www.eventbrite.com/e/got-your-6-serving-those-who-served-tickets-432782533207

Día de los Muertos (Day of the Dead)
Hosted by EWU Chicana/o/x Studies and EWU MEChA
November 3, 2022  4:30 p.m.  PUB NCR

Veterans Day (EWU closed)
November 11, 2022

Historical Trauma and the Native American Boarding School Experience
Lector: Dr. Roberta Paul, Nez Perce tribal member and EWU alumna
Hosted by American Indian Studies Program
November 15, 2022  12 p.m. - 1:30 p.m.  PUB NCR
Dr. Roberta Paul discusses the cultural and multigenerational effects of Indian boarding schools. Dr. Paul is curator of an exhibit documenting three generations of the Paul family and their experiences in Indian boarding schools beginning in 1880 with her grandfather, Jesse Paul. During the program, Dr. Paul will share photos from the exhibit, followed by an opportunity for Q&A.

Transgender Awareness Week
November 13-19, 2022

UndocuALLY Workshop
Presented by the Multicultural Center
November 17, 2022  12 p.m. - 2 p.m.  PUB 321
UndocuALLY is intended for anyone interested in being a responsible and visible ally for undocumented students on the EWU campus. Please register here: https://inside.ewu.edu/mcc/undocually/

Transgender Day of Remembrance
Hosted by the Pride Center
November 17, 2022  5 p.m.  JFK Library
A memorial program followed by a candlelight vigil outside the library.

Thanksgiving Day (EWU closed)
November 24, 2022

Native American Heritage Day (EWU closed)
November 25, 2022

Diversity Essentials Presentation
Active Advocacy: Supporting Trans Communities
Presented by Nihtawneemiw Boham and Maggie Harty, Pride Center
November 29, 2022  1 p.m. - 2:30 p.m.  Tawanka 215
Learn about current issues facing the transgender community, what being an advocate really means, and discuss some concrete ways to engage in active, ongoing advocacy.

People seeking accommodations should contact the sponsoring office 5 days before the event.