

Benefits to being a member...

Common Advising Community

Join in conversation and dialogue about what is important in advising. Promote ways to improve current EWU advising systems and contribute ideas and solutions for existing challenges.

Regular Monthly Meetings

Be part of regularly-scheduled monthly meetings to find out about new initiatives, policies, procedures, and department updates. Find out what's new, potential changes, and give an update of your own.

Free Professional Development Opportunities

Participate in roundtable discussions, advising/advisor support trainings, webinars, and partner with others to conduct research.

Fresh Perspectives

Everyone contributes to advising in one way or another. EWU ACADA is open to all Staff, Faculty, and Students. We can all tell stories from our work with students and with many different types of people who are affected by advising, this is a venue to gain the perspectives of our colleagues.

Networking

Connecting different parts of EWU and getting to know people and areas better to benefit our students and our own professional relationships.

Awards

Recognize and acknowledge members of EWU ACADA for outstanding work in professional academic advising, faculty advising, and advising support and service.
