

The insertion of correspondence, reprints, or other printed matter into pre-addressed or window envelopes.

NOTE: Before a request for folding and/or inserting, we will be glad to look at sample forms and envelopes to determine if the materials can be processed on our mail processing systems. We can offer suggestions for size and shape requirements to keep your mailing costs as low as possible.