

Eastern Washington University
Services and Activities Fee Committee Summer Policy

Purpose

- I. This policy is to establish who has authority over unfinished business of the Services and Activities Fee Committee during the Summer Quarter upon the absence of the Chair.

Definition

- I. When used in this policy the following shall mean:
  - a. “Unfinished Business” means items approved by proper vote by the Services and Activities Fee Committee but no action was taken before the end of Spring Quarter.

Policy

- I. In the event that the Chair has graduated, they are removed from all duties as Chair.
  - b. The Vice-Chair will assume the title of Chair and take control of all unfinished business.
- I. In the event that the Chair is away from campus for the duration of Summer Break, he or she will be removed from all duties as Chair.
  - c. The Vice-Chair will assume the title of Chair and take control of all unfinished business.
- II. In the event that the Vice-Chair has graduated, they are removed from all duties as Chair.
  - a. The incoming ASEWU Finance Vice President will assume the title of chair and take control of all unfinished business.
- III. In the event that the Vice-Chair is away from campus for the duration of summer break, he or she will be removed from all duties as Chair.
  - a. The incoming ASEWU Finance Vice President will assume the title of Chair and take control of all unfinished business.
- IV. In the event that the Finance Vice President chooses not to work Summer Quarter, he or she will be removed from all duties as the Chair.
  - a. The ASEWU President will assume the title of Chair and take control of all unfinished business.