Effective August 1, 2021, in conjunction with Federal H.R. 7105 Veterans Health Care and Benefits Improvement Act of 2020, and Washington State policy (RCW 28B.15.012); allows qualifying non-resident veterans to pay the resident tuition rate. To qualify students must complete this declaration if they meet either of the following Federal or State requirements (check which applies):

I AM A VETERAN: (and meet following Federal H.R. 7105 policy)

Live in Washington State while attending EWU

Actively using VA Education Benefits: Chapter/Type:

Served at least 90 days of active duty service

Discharged or released from service under conditions other than dishonorable

Discharge date (month/year)

STOP - Only complete below if don't meet above criteria

I AM A VETERAN: (and meet following State RCW policy)

Live in or outside of Washington State while attending EWU

Eligible or Actively using VA Education Benefits: Chapter/Type

Entered school within 3 years of separation from the military (CH 31 VR&E exempt from 3yr rule)

Served at least 90 days of active duty service

Discharged or released from service under honorable conditions

Discharge date (month/year)

(If Washington is your official home of record; or if you moved to Washington and established a domicile as determined by RCW 28B.15.013, go to <https://inside.ewu.edu/records-and-registration/residency/> to complete the Washington Uniform Residency Questionnaire in lieu of completing this form.)

I understand that this exemption to be charged resident tuition will expire if I do not maintain continuous enrollment at Eastern Washington University.
